

Acknowledgements

This resource manual has contributions from educators and professionals from across Minnesota and the United States. The many tools you will find in this edition were brought together and organized by Jill Yost, Christy Zubke, and Raycheal Murphy.

Jill Yost has experience working with students with a variety of needs. She worked in a rural Northern MN district for 13 years working with middle and high school aged students. She earned her Master's in Special Education with a specialization in Autism Spectrum Disorders and currently works for Bemidji Regional Interdistrict Council (BRIC) as an Autism Consultant.

Christy Zubke has been working in education since 2004. She has been a special education teacher in North Dakota and Minnesota over the years; working with students across all abilities and age ranges. Most of her teaching experience has been in the areas of autism and developmental cognitive disabilities. She has a Master's of Education in Special Education (ASD, EBD, DCD, and SLD) with an undergraduate degree in Elementary Education. She is currently employed as an Autism Consultant for Bemidji Regional Interdistrict Council (BRIC) in northern Minnesota.

Raycheal Murphy has experience with autism and low incidence disabilities as a current school psychologist and former low incidence special education teacher. She currently works for St. Croix River Education District and is a board member of the Minnesota School Psychologists Association (MSPA).